OLD FORT EDMONTON

CATALOGUE

RELICS BUILDING, EDMONTON, ALBERTA

We sincerely trust that your visit to this old building will be entertaining and educational. We have gathered here many old relics secured from here, there and everywhere. To many of our citizens of today these relics do not mean very much, but to the Pioneers who rolled back the Western Frontiers, that you and I might see and have as our own this glorious Western land; rich in beauty, mineral wealth and a health-producing climate, it meant the land of their choice.

Herein we have tried to give you a meagre insight into these articles we cherish highly.

PLEASE DO NOT HANDLE, DESTROY OR TAKE AWAY ANY OF THESE ARTICLES AS OTHERS MAY WANT TO SEE THEM AND ENJOY THEIR HISTORICAL VALUE AS WELL AS YOU.

"THE CABIN"

Built by the willing hands of Old Pioneers
Many of whom have long since passed away..

" And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, sayeth the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them "

Rev.14;13:

"THE CASIN"

But by the time the hands of the clock have passed away.

"And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write these things: for they shall come to pass. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end. Blessed are they which do his commandments that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter in by the gates into the city. Without are the dogs, and the fornicators, and the murderers, and the whoremongers, and every one that loveth and doeth a lie." Rev. 22:3-19

A Tale of The Airly Days

Oh! tell me a tale of the airly days—
Of the times as they used to be;
“Piller of Fi-er” and “Shakespeare’s Plays”
Is a’most too deep for me!
I want plane facts, and I want plane words,
Of the good old-fashioned ways,
When speech run free as the songs of birds
“Way back in the airly days.”

Tell me a tale of the timber-lands—
Of the old-time pioneers;
Somepin’ a pore man understands
With his feelin’s ’s well as ears.
Tell of the old log house—about
The loft, and the puncheon flore—
The old fi-er-place, with the crane swung out,
And the latch-string through the door.

Tell of the things jest as they was—
They don’t need no excuse!—
Don’t tetch ’em up like the poets does,
Tel they’re all too fine fer use!—
Say they was ’leven in the fambily—
Two beds, and the chist, below,
And the trundle-beds that each helt three,
And the clock and the old bureau.

Then blow the horn at the old back-door
Tel the echoes all halloo,
And the childern gethers home onc’t more,
Jest as they ust to do:
Blow fer Pap tel he hears and comes,
With Tomps and Elias, too,
A-marchin’ home, with fife and drums
And the old Red White and Blue!

Blow and blow tel the sound draps low
As the moan of the whipperwill,
And wake up Mother, and Ruth and Jo,
All sleepin’ at Bethel Hill:
Blow and call tel the faces all
Shine out in the back-log’s blaze,
And the shadders dance on the old hewed wall
As they did in the airly days.
